

People on the move

ROGER KOBERT JOINS WEISS SEROTA HELFMAN PASTORIZA COLE & BONISKE

The law firm of Weiss Serota Helfman Pastoriza Cole & Boniske announced that Roger Kobert has joined the firm as a partner. He will be resident in the firm's Miami-Dade office.

Roger Kobert is a senior trial attorney with more than 25 years of experience litigating, trying, arbitrating and appealing cases for private and public clients. He has developed an outstanding reputation in the area of cross-border counseling and advocacy and has appeared as an expert witness on matters of U.S. law in foreign court proceedings. He has also advised foreign governments on matters of U.S. law and sovereign immunity.

Kobert is AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell. He is an active member of the American Bar Association's International Law Section, and a member of The Florida Bar's Trial Lawyers and International Law Sections. He has been named to Florida Trends Legal Elite for the past five years and is also on American Lawyers Top Rated Commercial & Business Lawyers list. In addition, he is active in Greater Miami Jewish Federation and a past chair of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation Corporate Olympics. Kobert earned his BA from the University of Pennsylvania and his JD from the University of Miami School of Law.

Kobert comes to Weiss Serota from Miami business law boutique Rafferty Kobert Tenenholtz & Hess.