Aaron Graubert is an associate in the firm's Litigation Division, where he represents clients in a wide variety of matters with an emphasis on municipal litigation.

Prior to joining the firm, Aaron honed his appellate and litigation support skills at two Miami-based firms. His responsibilities included conducting in-depth legal research, drafting dispositive motions, including motions for summary judgment, motions to dismiss, motions to vacate defaults, and other responsive motions, as well as providing other substantive litigation support.

Aaron worked as a legislative assistant in Washington, D.C., where he tracked and summarized legislation, wrote memoranda for Congressional hearings, advised clients on COVID-19 relief disbursements, and made appropriations requests for community funding projects.

As a law student, in 2019, the B'nai B'rith Justice Unit #2507 selected him as a Maurice Berkowitz Summer Fellow. During his fellowship, he worked with legal aid providers in Broward County, including the Legal Aid Service of Broward County and the Coast-to-Coast Legal Aid of South Florida. In this role, he worked closely with clients and attorneys on immigration issues.
