

ARIELLE S. VANON

ASSOCIATE

Ft. Lauderdale
(954) 763-4242
avanon@wsh-law.com

Arielle focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation and construction claims and defense.

Before joining the firm, Arielle was an associate in the mass litigation practice of an AmLaw 200 firm where she represented a leading insurance provider in complex litigation matters, managing thousands of cases and leading the mediation division. She has advised insurers on coverage, case defensibility, and potential exposure.

Arielle has defended developers, contractors, and subcontractors in multi-party disputes involving alleged construction defect, general liability, and premises liability claims with significant financial exposure. She has coordinated and led on-site inspections, and handled all aspects of litigation through trial preparation for multi-million dollar construction matters.

Arielle earned her Juris Doctor from Florida State University College of Law, where she obtained an environmental law certificate and served as Senior Staff Editor of the FSU Law Review and Secretary of the Student Bar Association. During law school, she was a law clerk for the Office of the General Counsel of the Florida Fish and Wildlife
