Harrison is an associate in the Firm's Litigation Division and focuses his practice on commercial litigation matters and appeals. Harrison's work includes representation of clients on complex partnership and business disputes, commercial landlord/tenant disputes, securities fraud and EB-5 fraud.

During law school, Harrison was Treasurer of the Moot Court Board and an Associate Justice of the student Supreme Court. He was also a member of the Journal of Transnational Law and Policy and the Journal of Land Use and Environmental Law, where he was awarded Best Sub Citer. Additionally, Harrison received the Best Brief Award and was a semi-finalist at the 2017 Kaufman Moot Court National Securities Law Competition.

Prior to law school, Harrison earned a Master's degree in Public Administration at the Askew School of Public Policy. While earning his Master's, he worked for the Disaster Incident Research Team and served as lead navigator and drone operator in various operations to help improve Haiti's disaster planning and response efforts. He also served as Director of Governmental Relations at Florida State University, legislative assistant at the Florida House of Representatives, and as a lead Agency Bill Analyst for the Florida Highway Patrol.
