jmayer@wsh-law.com

Jaimie focuses her practice on land use, zoning, and litigation. She represents clients before local zoning boards, historic preservation boards, and city commissions throughout South Florida. Jaimie also handles litigation matters, assisting with motion practice, discovery, and strategy in complex disputes.

Before joining the firm, Jaimie practiced at a boutique land use firm in Miami and gained experience through roles in the public and private sectors. She served as a judicial intern to U.S. District Judge Beth Bloom of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida.

Jaimie earned her J.D. from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law and her B.S. in finance from Florida State University.
