

MICHAEL FERRAL

OF COUNSEL

Miami
(305) 854-0800
mferral@wsh-law.com

Michael represents businesses, insurers, and institutional clients in a wide range of civil litigation matters, including general liability, premises liability, automobile negligence, construction-related disputes, and complex commercial litigation. He guides clients through all phases of litigation, from early case evaluation and discovery through dispositive motion practice, mediation, and trial.

Before joining the firm, Michael served as department managing attorney at a full-service law firm, where he oversaw litigation operations across multiple offices. In that role, he maintained primary responsibility for litigation strategy and trial management in high-exposure matters and served as trial counsel in numerous jury trials. His trial experience includes voir dire, opening statements, witness examinations, evidentiary arguments, and closing arguments.

Michael earned his Juris Doctor degree from Georgetown University Law Center and graduated from Loyola Marymount University with a major in political science. While in law school, he served as a congressional law clerk for the Honorable Blake Farenthold in the U.S. House of Representatives.
