

MATTHEW H. MANDEL

PARTNER

CHAIR OF LITIGATION DIVISION

Ft. Lauderdale
(954) 763-4242
mmandel@wsh-law.com

As Chair of the firm's Litigation Division, Matt Mandel is a strategic thinker whose municipal and private clients entrust him with their most important matters.

In municipal litigation, Matt has successfully represented Florida cities in discrimination claims under the Fair Housing Amendments Act and Americans with Disabilities Act; federal and state civil rights claims for false arrest, excessive force and malicious prosecution; actions relating to the deprivation of procedural and substantive due process rights; claims under the Florida Whistleblower Act and the Florida Civil Rights Act; First Amendment challenges to municipal sign codes and adult use regulations; construction disputes relating to municipal structures; municipal annexation disputes; the prosecution and defense of municipal finance issues; and the defense of personal injury claims.

In the private sector, Matt's successes include representing a worldwide computer software company in matters relating to contractual disputes, and representing land owners in a constitutional challenge to an illegal county funding mechanism. He has also represented financial institutions in large commercial
