rgorzeck@wsh-law.com

Rana's practice focuses upon commercial real estate, lending transactions, and business law. She represents businesses, lenders and individuals in complex transactions, including secured lending, commercial and high-end residential real estate, title examination, leasing, contracts, partnership agreements, and the acquisition and sale of businesses.

Rana regularly serves as company counsel for businesses requiring assistance with their daily legal needs and their property and leasing transactions.

Prior to joining the firm, Rana practiced at a South Florida law firm where she represented financial institutions and borrowers with their lending, real property, and borrowing needs in various loan transactions, high-net-worth families with their acquisitions and businesses with their corporate issues.
