

Joseph Serota elected president of Temple Bet Shira

Pinecrest resident Joseph Serota has been elected president of Temple Bet Shira and will begin his term in May. Serota is a founding member and senior litigator at the Weiss Serota Helfman Pastoriza Cole & Boniske law firm. He is active in professional organizations and civic affairs, and has been chair of the Third District Court of Appeal Judicial Nominations Commission, president of the Dade County Bar Association and a member of the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar. He is past chair of the Metro-Dade Community Relations Board and of the Miami-Dade Independent Review Panel. He currently serves as chair of the New World Center Committee of the Greater Miami Chamber and is the chair of the Centennial Celebration of the 11th Judicial Circuit. Serota is a graduate of Princeton and received his law degree from the University of Miami.