

Matthew Mandel Named President of the Broward Federal Bar Association

The law firm of Weiss Serota Helfman Pastoriza Cole & Boniske, P.L., announced that partner and litigation chair Matthew Mandel is the new incoming president of the Broward County Chapter of the Federal Bar Association. The goals of the chapter are to serve the federal judiciary and to serve the South Florida legal community by promoting education and access to the federal judiciary.

“We are proud that Matthew Mandel is taking the reins of the Broward Chapter of the Federal Bar,” said Weiss Serota Helfman’s managing director Jamie Cole. “His knowledge, experience and character make him the ideal person to take on this role.”

Practicing in the firm’s Fort Lauderdale office, Mandel has extensive trial experience and specializes in municipal and commercial litigation at both State and Federal levels. Specifically, he litigates a wide array of cases for both municipal and private clients including contractual and business disputes, civil rights violations, police liability claims, land use challenges, sign code challenges and personal injury claims. Mandel also has significant appellate experience at both the State and Federal levels and has numerous favorable cases published on Westlaw and Lexis. Mandel earned his B.A., with honors, from the University of Miami and his J.D., magna cum laude, from the University of Miami School of Law. He previously served as the Chair for the Leadership Development Committee for the Broward County League of Cities.
